

HELD FOR THEFTS IN BIG HOTELS

Two Men Accused of Robbing Patrons With Aid of Maids—
$1,000 Recovered.

Michael Stanley, address refused, and Thomas Denehy, No. 319 West 116th Street, were arraigned in Yorkville Court to-day on charges of grand larceny. The police charge that Stanley, working with the aid of maids, robbed guests of several hotels, and that Denehy was associated with Stanley.

About a week ago Stanley registered at the Great Northern Hotel. Yesterday he was stopped as he was walking out with a suitcase without having paid his bill, about $40. The suitcase was held as security and the police say they found in it $1,000 worth of clothing and jewelry, some of it identified as belonging to Arthur Blum, a guest of the Hotel Savoy. An examination of the hotel registers convinced the police Stanley had registered under other names recently at the Bristol, Gotham, Savoy and other hotels. The Savoy manager said he remembered him. Denehy, who was formerly employed in an apartment house at 37th Street and Madison Avenue, was arrested with Stanley yesterday afternoon at Broadway and 44th Street.

STRIKE TYING UP BUILDING SETTLED

Hudson County Teamsters' and Chauffeurs Return to Work—
Out Since January.

The strike of the building material teamsters and chauffeurs of Hudson County, N. J., which has been on since Jan. 9 last, was settled this morning, the men claiming a "complete victory," although admitting that they had lost their demand for an eight-hour day. The men will work nine hours at an increase of $4 a week in pay.

Although nothing definite was given out regarding the demand for a closed shop and recognition of the union, Charles D. Hendrickson, counsel for the Building Material Men's Association of Hudson County, admitted that the men had won.

About 400 men have been on strike, and building operations throughout the county have been tied up completely. Hendrickson said that not one of his clients has sold "so much as a brick" since the strike was called.

An injunction was applied for to restrain the men from attacking yards and property. Twenty-seven delegates of the union have been indicted, but no arrests made.

REV. G. P. ECKMAN DEAD.

Was Long Time Pastor of St. Paul's Church Here.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., June 29.—Rev. George P. Eckman, author of several books and formerly editor of the Christian Advocate, died suddenly in Scranton last evening while attending a Board of Trade meeting.

Dr. Eckman joined the Newark Conference in 1886, serving in Methuen, N. J., South Orange and Orange. He entered the New York Conference in 1897, and from that year until 1911 was pastor of St. Paul's Church in New York City. From 1912 to 1914 he served as editor of the Christian Advocate and in 1915 became pastor of the Elm Park Church in Scranton, which position he held at the time of his death.

WITNESS ADMITS UNTRUTH.

Change in Testimony Turns Separation Suit Against Wife.

The suit for separation brought by Mrs. Alice Doyle of No. 31 Amity Street, Brooklyn, against William H. Doyle was to-day decided in the householder's favor by Justice Lazansky of the Supreme Court. A private detective and two other witnesses stated that they had seen Mrs. Doyle and August Angel of No. 219 Court Street, at a theatre on June 15 last. Angel denied he had been there.

Justice Lazansky said some one was not telling the truth and might go to jail. So Angel was summoned to the stand again to-day and admitted that he had testified falsely and had been at the theatre with Mrs. Doyle. Benjamin C. Ginn, attorney for Mrs. Doyle, stated that he intended to lay the facts before District Attorney Lewis.
